TWO BOYS GO DOWN

To a Watery Grave in Grand River

THEY FELL IN WHILE AT PLAY

On a Bourn at the Foot of Mason Street The Search for the Bodies by the Police and Others.

Frank Westra, aged 6, and George Murray, aged 8, were drowned in the giver near Mason street in the north end about 5:30 yesterday afternoon. The two boys, with others, were playing on the river bank for some time during the afternoon, when a few of them walked out upon the boom. The two unfortunate boys were also on the boom, and the Westra boy pushed young Murray. Thinking that he was going into the river, he excitedly grasped the Westra boy and they both fell off the boom into the river. Being unable to swim they sank to the bottom and those on the bank ran away in fright. The alarm was given but before assistance could arrive the little boys had sunk for the last time and no trace of them could be seen. The police department was notified and the patrol wagon and officers were sent to the scene of the accident. It was not long before the river bank and the boom were crowded with persons who lived in the vicinity. Several young men jumped into the river and began to dive in search of the bodies. The body of little George Murray was found about half an hour afterwards entangled in the driftwood on the bank of the river about three hundred feet below where he fell in. The body was taken in the patrol wagon to O'Brien's undertaking rooms, and his mother, Mrs. Etta Murray, a widow, employed at the Bridge Street house, was informed of her and affection. The was informed of her sad affliction. The mother was greatly agitated when the news was broken to her and her grief was pitiful. She was not permitted to see the remains last evening on account of her excitable condition. Her little boy was living with his uncle, John Mitchel, at No. 373 North Ionia street. Sea on for the Westra toy was con-tinued until 8 o'clock without success, when it was abandoned on account of dackness. Mrs. Kate Westra, the mather of this toy, is a widow residing at No. 538 Ottawa street.

Awarded Damages.

The jury in the Bates street opening case went out at 4:10 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The verdict was rendered and filed at 5:05 o'clock. The jury dechied that the opening and widening of Bates street, from Henry street to East street to a uniform width of fifty feet, etreet to a uniform width of fifty feet, is a necessary public improvement. Eleven property owners were awarded damages in the following amounts: Corne insiden Houten, $449; Pieterke Lan, $100; Horsee H. McClure, $99; Taomas M. Andre, $2; Hessel Rouwersma, $1.50; Harm Reitmyer, $2.50; Conrad Miente Pet, $3; Thomas Madderman, $4.50; Jacob Zylstra, $600. The aggregate of damages is $1.475. damages is $1,475.

Hobes Held for Trial. The testimony in the hobo case was read in police court yesterday after-noon, after which Wady Poliske, Will-iam Murphy, Fred Clifton, William Mitchell and Alexander Adams were held to the superior court for trial on a charge of resisting an officer. John Granger, William O'Donnel and Joseph Powers, arrested on the same charge, were discharged. The evidischarged were not on the scene of the affray until half an hour after the trouble occurred. Cleanliness Discouraged.

Theodore Volz, William Volz, W. Grobenest and H. Smith were bathing in the river near the D. & M. railway bridge when an officer arrested them for violating a city ordinance. They were brought into police court and owing to their youthfulness their cases were referred to County Agent Hatheway. Upon the advice of the county agent the boys were fined $1 each and the costs of the suit was apportioned equally among them. The court ad-vised them to go to the lake where the water is more suitable for bathing pur-

CITY PRESS COMMENT.

There don't seem to be as much in-terest taken in the Chicago convention as there was in its predecessor at Minneapolis. There is nothing like a fight for getting up an excitement. It was this prospect that aroused such general inserest last week. The overwhelming Cleveland air promised for next week is too peaceful. The Milkman Mad.

Whenever a family puts in a No. 30 Leonard Milk Refrigerator, there is invariably a row with the milkman. The trouble is, he is detected in his practice of stealing half the cream, and is obliged to deliver full cream milk to this particular family. There are other advantages: the milk never sours, there is a place for butter where it does not absorb odor from other food, the skim milk is easily aclast night and only a few of them did cessible and the yield of cream is largely increased. It is the application of the deep setting creamery process, so advantageously used by wide-awake farmers, to the use of city people. You should get one. It may be seen at 29 and 31 Monroe St.

Furniture Sale of C. S. Hartman-Great Bargain For All. The furniture sale of Carl S. Hartdaily in and out of the city, and the sales, as shown by the books, have been enormous. The stock was one of the largest and best selected ever shown in this city, everything being of the latest designs. People relized this fact and daily they have carried away bargains from the great sale. Nothwithstanding the stock has been heavily withstanding the stock has been heavily drawn upon no line has, as yet, been exhausted and bargains are still in store for all comers. In the line of odd pieces the demand has been very heavy but Mr. Hartman has a big line yet to select from, but he says he will not warrant it lasting much longer judging by the sales of yesterday. Side boards, hook cases, music racks and hall trees seem to be in great demand, and why seem to be in great demand, and why not for they are sold away below cost of manufacture, but Mr. Hartman must vacate the premises; hence the bargains that the purchasers are carrying away at each sale. It is only once in a while that a sale like the one in augustated by Mr. Hartman is offered, and the people are not slow to catch on and secure first-class furniture at about the price of pine and inferior woods.

Judging by the amount of furniture carried away yesterday the sale will be brought to a close in a few days. Those who have not secured what furniture they want or obtained some odd piece for the parior or hall will miss it if they delay longer. The sale is on and the furniture is going fast. seem to be in great demand, and why
